Topics Discussed:

This week's topic was diagrams, where we learned in detail about Use Case and ER diagram, Activity, Sequence and State diagrams, and Data Flow. We discussed about the connection between each diagram within the same type and with different types of diagrams in general, therefore each member will implement them in the best way. We discussed about the distribution of the work and tried to come up with the most efficient distribution.

Decisions Made:

At the end of the discussion, we decided that:

- We would design all the types of diagrams
- After designing the diagrams, each of us will upload them in GitHub, in the Diagrams folder, where each type of diagram would have a specific folder with their respective names.
- These diagrams are the first version; We will update them consistently every time we find a problem or come up with different requirements.
